Others Talk, We Listen.

I enjoy volunteering with Apparo because I'm helping nonprofits, who, in turn are helping others. It's a very engaging way to volunteer when you can pay it forward by sharing your skills and what you do on a day to day basis. I also appreciate that CapTech gives me the time for this. An organization that encourages their employees to volunteer is a great one to work for."

Value of Volunteer Work

"Kevin was very clear, answered all of our questions and delivered the material in a lighthearted, relaxed setting that made learning fun .... We can easily share documents and have improved ability to work from home or while we are traveling."

-- Alexa Nagy, Community Outreach and Development Coordinator, Lily Pad Haven
